HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The liver, sympathizing so closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, never feel well. They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. B. D. FENDALL.

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

SPEECH of JOHN SCOTT, Esq.,

At a Meeting in the Court House, Friday Evening, Sept. 18th, 1868.

REPORTED BY ROBERT McDIVITT, ESQ.

Mr. Scott, on rising to address the meeting, was for some minutes unable to proceed, owing to the enthusiastic and oft-repeated demonstrations of applause with which he was greeted by the audience.

He commenced by contrasting the circumstances under which the issues of this campaign are discussed, with those of the campaign of 1864. In '64 Horatio Seymour was President of the Chicago Convention, and with him were Biglor of Pa., Vallandigham, of Ohio, and others, who declared in their platform that four years of war had resulted in a failure to restore the Union, and that the war should cease. They further charged that the Government had broken and violated the Constitution in every part—in other words, the Chicago platform, constructed by Seymour and others, was a declaration of war against the Government, and of peace with the rebels who were trying to destroy it. While these men were engaged in forming that platform, Wade Hampton was waving his sword at the head of the "Hampton Legion," and perhaps charging the "Boys in Blue," destroying as many as possible of those who were there in defence of the Government. Buckner, the man Grant informed that he would move on his works at Donelson, was also doing what he could to destroy the Government. Preston was seeking to secure the influence of the Courts of Europe against us. Here we had Seymour, Bigler, and Vallandigham on the one side, and Buckner, Preston, and Wade Hampton on the other side, all co-operating for the purpose of dividing the party having control of the Government, and the Government itself, while Gen. Grant was fighting the battles of the Wilderness; Hartranft, after his grand achievement on the bloody field of Antietam, was engaged in the trenches about Richmond, and Campbell was guarding the line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to prevent the rebels of the South from burning your home and mine. How in 1868? Seymour, Bigler and Vallandigham were again in a Democratic Convention, as actors, or as moving spirits, to engineer its nomination and platform. Pendleton, if not there, had his escort there. We saw them going there but not coming back. [Laughter and applause.] The same men who were against Grant in 1864 are against him now. The same men who then sent the "Boys in Blue" home to be buried, Hampton and Buckner, and the men who joined hands with them in the North, are joining hands now in opposition to Gen. Grant. In 1864 the Democrats of the North said every measure taken by the Government was unconstitutional, and thus sought to cripple its energies while the rebels in the field were denying the right of the Government to exert its control over them.

When the Democratic party of the North, and the rebel element of the South came together, could anything else come of it than what did? One plank of the platform attacking the finances of the Government, and the other attacking the power of the Government to govern the Southern States; this was Wade Hampton's platform, the result of a coalition of the two elements North and South. Sherman knocked the bottom out of one plank of the old platform, at Atlanta, while the elections in Vermont and Maine, knocked the balance into splinters that were used to light up the bonfires of freedom from Maine to California. Shortly after the New York platform was adopted Wade Hampton made a speech at Baltimore in which it was asserted that the rebels, by the success of that platform, would gain what they had lost, but by and by came the Vermont, followed by the Maine election, and the entire platform is pretty near in splinters now, the last contest of the Democratic party North, allied with the rebels South.

In the Chicago Convention, there were some rebels, such as Brown, of Georgia, but the difference is that they were repentant rebels! If the whole South, Wade Hampton and all, could get together in one great camp-meeting, and sing the first two verses of that familiar hymn, "Show pity Lord, oh Lord forgive," we would join them in such a love-feast as was never witnessed; we would kill the fatted calf in earnest, and some of us would go in for the music and dancing.

The national debt was spoken of as a great grievance; the debt and taxes. How could it be otherwise, after the war? But the men who made the rebellion were responsible for the debt. In 1860 we were just recovering from the financial crisis of 1857, during which there were in Pennsylvania 560 failures, involving money to the amount of 24 millions. The rebellion came in 1861, and there occurred during that year, 570 failures, involving money to the amount of 24 millions; the act of the Rebel Government of that year confiscated 300 millions owing from the South to the North, of which the proportion of Pennsylvania was about 32 millions. During the war the Northern States took from the productive industry of their population over two millions of men, who became not only consumers but destroyers of produce, and is it not one of the most marvelous things overshown by the world's history, that we are able to go on with the ordinary industrial pursuits of the country, in such a way that there is no distress or want, but on the contrary, work plenty, at good wages. Before the Administration of Buchanan closed, 10 millions of a loan was offered by the Secretary of the Treasury, and only 7 millions were taken at 11 per cent. afterward 5 millions more were put in market and only one half of it taken at 85 cents on the dollar. During the terrible campaigns of 1863 and 1864, the same men now making clamor about the debt, were trying to induce the people not to touch the bonds of the Government, and saying that it would require a cord of greenbacks to buy a cord of wood. Taking all these things together it was a God's mercy that the country did not sink into bankruptcy and ruin the next day after the war closed.

The issue of the debt is not now before the country. The first of the debt matures in 1861, the next in 1882.—That is the time the Government bound itself to pay, although obtained in five or ten years. These bonds are issued by the Government for the purpose of raising money to carry on the war, the interest of some of them payable in gold, and the principal and interest of others. The right to borrow money is given by the Constitution.—They raise the quarrel now, long before the bonds are due; whether we shall pay them in gold or greenbacks, when we have not got either. The law limits the issue of greenbacks to 400 millions, and no more can be issued without another act of Congress; we have not the gold, and the legal tenders are not issued, and it would trouble the arithmetic of these men to pay $2,500,000,000, of bonds with $400,000 of greenbacks. The Democratic platform says, where the law does not say they are payable in gold they should be paid in lawful money of the United States. What is the lawful money of the United States? According to Democratic doctrine enunciated by Sunset Cox, at Brooklyn, it is the money that chinks. Here then the Democratic platform proposes to pay all those bonds in gold. Judge Woodward, he said, was placed in a position in that Convention from which none of his friends would be able to extricate him from the blot upon his political reputation, having declared, when a candidate for Governor, that the legal tenders, issued by the Government were not lawful money, and no man was bound to take them for a debt, and now that the bonds should be paid in the same currency he had pronounced unlawful. Pendleton and Vallandigham declared in Congress that they had no power to issue greenbacks; the Democratic party said that the greenbacks were issued in violation of the Constitution; this was their whole cry during the war, and now in order to issue greenbacks enough to take up these bonds, the party must do the same thing it has been decrying all the time. They are thus proposing to pay off bonds, which they made payable in gold, by giving notes which they say the Government has no power to issue at all, thus getting rid of all the claims of the widows and orphans of our deceased soldiers, and of the entire national debt by the issue of an unconstitutional currency.

We say pay these bonds when they become due, and when Grant and Colfax take the Presidential and Vice Presidential chairs, as they will, then will follow a career of peace and prosperity that will make the greenbacks by that time as good as gold.

Upon this financial question we are in as much danger of war as upon the question of reconstruction. We had during the war one hundred million dollars worth of property destroyed by the Alabama—commanded by the pirate Semmes, who lighted up the ocean with the flames of our burning merchantmen, and who is now an ardent supporter of Seymour and Blair, and against Grant—for which we have been presenting our claims to England, and which will be paid. We have millions of bonds in the hands of the German people, and if a democratic administration should ever take up the obligations of our Government to them by giving them an irredeemable promise to pay, would not the Prussian Government be as justifiable in protecting the rights of its citizens as we are ours; and if a democratic administration should undertake to carry out this idea there would be just as much danger of Prussia taking that ground as there is now from the question of reconstruction; and more, because we have the rebels a little nearer to home, and the same men have been once whipped by a little man called Grant.

It has been said that the poor man pays the rich man's taxes. Is that true? and if so, where, and how?—You all pay taxes, and where does the poor man pay the taxes of the rich man? What State tax do you pay on real estate? None. A Republican Legislature took off the taxes from real estate and imposed it upon railroad and telegraph companies, bank stock, &c. The poor man surely does not pay the rich man's taxes. Come down to the county tax, and what do you pay on there? Real estate, money at interest, &c. Are not the poor man and rich man taxed according to their property? In the borough taxes the poor man and rich man are taxed on the property they own, and pay alike. Now, where does the poor man pay the rich man's taxes? The national taxes are imposed on whisky, petroleum, manufactured articles, incomes, &c., not the necessaries of life, and those taxes are imposed alike. They say the poor man is taxed for all he eats and wears. Is not the rich man too? They say the bonds are not taxed. The income of the bonds, all over a thousand dollars, is taxed. They say the bondholder pays no local tax. The United States imposes this upon the interest of the bonds, but they say they should pay State taxes too. Now, the power does not exist to impose State tax on United States securities, and there must have been a hundred men in that New York Convention that knew it. If the men who are clamoring for this in our county do not know it they ought to be ashamed to confess it.

What do these men propose to do? The fourth plank in their platform proposes equal taxation of every species of property, &c.; that is they propose to begin at the ground and tax every man for every dollar he has, and yet they tell you the poor man pays the rich man's taxes. This Democratic platform proposes to tax poor houses, churches, school houses, and every other property, according to its value. It is like the decree issued by Augustus Cæsar to tax the whole world. They say the bonds locked up in the national banks ought to pay tax. They are paying three per cent. to the State and General Government. How do they propose to tax the United States bonds by the State? Every man of common sense can see that it is not in the power of a State Government to tax the national bonds. We had a Constitutional Amendment providing that our debt should be paid, and that the rebel debt should not; and while on its passage every Democrat voted against its adoption, and the moment the Legislature of some of the States that had adopted it changed they wiped out that amendment, saying that our debt should not be paid and the rebel debt should.—Put in the hands of such a Legislature as that the power to tax the property of the General Government and they would soon do so to such an extent as to blot out the whole.

Judge Woodward must surely hang his head in shame when he looks at the doctrines contained in that platform and then at the decision of the Supreme Court, as rendered in 1819, 1824, and 1829, and of our own State in 1842 and others, no less than six decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States, and one in the Supreme Court of our own State against taxing United States securities or the salaries of United States officers, and yet in the face of all this they are clamoring because there is no State tax on Government bonds. How much road tax, and school tax do these United States bonds pay, they say. How do you propose to get your school tax and road tax from them, over six decisions of the United States Supreme Court, and one of your own State?

By applying your own doctrine to your own platform, it is a cheat and a lie, and you can make nothing else out of it. If any man can reconcile it with good morals let him do it. The United States according to a clause in the Constitution, has made a contract with its bondholder that they will not permit State or local taxation, and yet you want the Government to violate that contract and that clause of the Constitution. This is like the subterfuges resorted to in the rebellion, and is bound to go down with the rebellion.

The rebels and the Democratic party say the Southern States are entitled to immediate restoration, and that the Government has no power to impose upon them any conditions. They say the war made no difference in their status. We say no; your rebellion authorized us to impose terms before you come back again, and upon that position we intend to stand and triumph. Talk about maintaining a government without the power to preserve its own life! We fought you when you had the bayonet at our breast, and now when you would inject poison into our veins we will take the liberty of stopping up the mouth of the syringe.

We present the grandest and most glorious spectacle ever presented by any nation of the earth. We were the youngest nation of the earth, and yet, after emerging from such a contest as the world never saw, there came the Ministers and Ambassadors of the oldest nation to our Capital, there, like the sheaves in Joseph's vision, to do us reverence and learn of us, while standing where our Congress was in session. The same Providence that impelled the slaveholder to take the only means that could have been taken to accomplish the same ends; that carried us through the war, and upheld us during those trying hours; that educated this people up to a belief in the emancipation of the colored race; that hardened the hearts of the Southern people against terms more magnanimous than were ever offered to a rebel people before; the same Providence was over-ruling our cause and hardening the hearts of this people as that of Pharaoh of old for the benefit and blessings of this country. What it is to be no human ken can see, but we will see it and know it hereafter. There is a Providence leading us on, and the nation that has been the asylum of the oppressed, will not go down beneath the convulsion of a presidential election. The little man of destiny, who began his career in the army by mustering in the troops of Illinois, and closed it up for the time by mustering out the whole rebellion; that little man is the man the country can still trust, and the Government will be safe under the patriotism of General Grant and the Christian statesmanship of Schuyler Colfax.

☞Reader! The election of Seymour and Blair means that Rebels shall rule the loyal men of the country. Shall they do it?

☞"Let us have peace," says Gen. Grant. Let every Union and order loving voter respond to that sentiment of our nation's leader on the 13th of October next.

☞The Democratic party has formally and completely committed itself to the principle of equal taxation of all property. Defeat Seymour and Blair, or prepare for taxes to be doubled.

☞Voters can you deposit a ballot for a man like Seymour who said the rebel Constitution was better than ours. Democrats, you who love your Constitution, repudiate such a man.

☞Gen. John A. Dix's letter will make thousands of votes for General Grant. He says that the election of Seymour would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall the country.

☞The soldiers should remember that if they vote for Seymour and Blair they are voting the same ticket as Wade Hampton, Buckner, Preston, Semmes, and a host of other rebel leaders.

☞Had that great patriot Stephen A. Douglass been living to-day he would have been as unreservedly for the Union now as he was in 1861.—His voice was raised against the rebels then, and, like General Dix, it would also have been to-day.

☞Last year the Democrats had one State Senator in Vermont. This year they have none. The Republican gain over last year is 6,781. And yet the Democrats claim Vermont.—Keep up your whistling boys, until you hear from the Old Keystone.

☞Work! work! work! The active work of the friends of Grant and Colfax in every part of the county for our whole ticket is telling seriously against the opposition. There is no room left this fall to "work on the sly."

☞Another big gun has bursted in the midst of the enemy's leaders. JAMES T. BRADY, the distinguished Irish lawyer and Democrat of New York, has come over to the Grant and Colfax army. His influence will be severely felt in New York against Seymour and Blair.

☞Union Republicans, we do not intend to permit any one of our nominees to be stricken down by falsehood or deception without making an effort to prevent it. That the Democrats are making a determined effort to defeat Mr. Brown and Mr. Neely will not be disputed. That they are receiving "aid and comfort" from men claiming to be good Republicans will not be denied. That they expect active Republicans to deceive honest Republican voters into the support of Democratic candidates at the polls is a fact no observing Republican will question. Without receiving aid from Republicans the Democrats cannot expect to defeat Brown and Neely. They do expect to defeat them, and they expect to defeat them with the assistance they expect to receive from Republicans in many of the townships who have the confidence of the Republican voters. Republican voters in every district, see that you are not deceived at the polls by anybody—see that you vote the full ticket as nominated by the Convention of your party. See that your ticket is clear of pasters. Examine your ticket closely before you offer your vote. Do not allow any one of our candidates to be stricken down by falsehood or deception. Work and vote as you would wish all to work and vote if you were the candidates of your party. Every man upon your ticket is worthy your earnest support. Do not believe any of the falsehoods circulated by Democrats or their "aids" to injure Capt. Neely, Mr. Brown, or any other of your candidates. Watch your polls and expose any man who may attempt to deceive a voter; and remember too, the Republican who may fail to stand by the men who stood by the country when it was in danger of being destroyed by Rebels who are now prominent leaders of the Democratic party. With Grant and Colfax as the Union Republican candidates, in opposition to Seymour and Blair, the candidates of Rebels and their sympathizers, we cannot see how any good Union Republican can think of giving the enemy "aid and comfort" even should it be only in the election of a county auditor.

THE NEW DODGE.—The Democrats have resorted to the low dodge of passing counterfeit greenbacks to deceive ignorant voters. They have a picture of their favorite Seymour on one side, and the Democratic doctrine of paying the bondholder in greenbacks on the other. They don't say whether that is a sample of the kind that will be issued, but it is reasonable to suppose it is. These counterfeits are circulated among the unsophisticated blacks in the South who are paid with them to vote for Seymour and Blair; and ignorant farmers in the Northern States are given the same paper for the same purpose, and this is the party that is such a great friend of the poor man. They will give him a piece of pictured green paper, and tell him that it is as good as genuine. When the Democrats will resort to such measures to make votes, it is well seen that they feel their cause is losing ground. Beware of these imitations, and beware of the Democratic dodges of every shape.

ARE YOU ASSESSED.—We wish our Republican friends to remember that Oct. 3d, is the last day on which special assessments can be made, so as to secure a vote at the election on the 13th. Let them look around and see that all their Republican neighbors, who require to be specially assessed, have this important duty attended to. Be sure that all our friends who entitled to a vote are fully qualified before it is too late. No man can vote [except he vote on age] who has not paid a State or County tax within 2 years. If you have not paid tax within that time, and have none against you on the collector's book, then you must apply and be assessed. To have paid a Borough, City, School or County tax will not entitle you to vote.

☞The official statement of the public debt, made by Secretary McCulloch, who is a supporter of Seymour and Blair, shows a reduction of the debt since September 1, 1865, of OVER TWO HUNDRED MILLIONS of DOLLARS. Here are the figures:

Funded debt, Sept. 1, 1865	$2,757,689,571
" " " 1868	2,535,614,313
Decrease in three years	$222.075.258

These figures should set at rest the quibbling of Democratic speakers about the public debt. Having bounties to pay the soldiers, the interest on bonds to pay, the pensions to soldiers to pay, the seven millions to pay Russia for Alaska, three millions to the aid of the Union Pacific Railroad, is it not a wonder the debt is not more?

☞What does a Union man want to know, more than that he is supporting Grant and Colfax and their friends, nominated by Union men—and is opposing Seymour and Blair and their friends, nominated by Rebels and their sympathizers. The taxes is another issue, and as the Democratic platform pledges the party to tax every species of property, there is no inducement to support the party on that plank. The greenbacks and bonds will be "shifted" as soon as the Government can furnish something better. Every evil will be removed in good time if the rebels who brought them upon us are kept out of power.

☞Union Republicans of Huntingdon county, every one of you, remember that you will make a record at the first election for or against yourselves that will come up before the party at a future day. The great and important issue before the people is, shall Union men who crushed the rebellion, rule during the next four years, or shall the Rebels who attempted to destroy our Government be elevated to power and a controlling influence under Seymour and Blair. At any other time than this fall, Republicans might be excused for voting for personal friends on the opposition ticket, but to do so at the election in October next would be endangering harmonious and earnest opposition to the Seymour and Blair Rebel organization in November. Remember, that to work successfully against the common enemy, the greatest harmony and good feeling should exist in our party. Every man placed upon our ticket by the party should receive the vote of every man claiming to be one of the party. Every district should return its vote full and solid for every man nominated. This done, there would be no room left for bad feeling to exist—no room left for complaining—the seed of factions would be destroyed. To save our country from Rebel rule we must be in earnest and present a solid front.

☞The jig's up!—the Democratic regulators can't succeed in getting a Republican to come out as a volunteer candidate for Sheriff. No good Republican can be persuaded to lay himself up to dry. The opposition to Capt. Neely was made by a few persons who had been influenced by Democrats to believe the slanders circulated to injure him. But since the Republican voters have found out that the Democrats are very anxious to defeat Capt. Neely, and that their organ is determined to lie him down to the full extent of its ability, they are closing in solid to give the brave soldier Captain Neely such a majority as no Republican candidate has had for years. The falsehoods circulated to injure the Captain, will make him votes wherever he is known, and with men in every part of the county who are of the opinion that there should be honesty and fair dealing as well in politics as in any other business. Capt. Neely cannot be defeated,—his enemies may as well cease lying about him and have loss to answer for after the election.

☞The free trade league of New York are trying to defeat Mr. Morrell. They have sent money into this district, it is asserted, in order to do it.—We are glad to have the opposition of such a league, as it is convincing proof that the labors of Mr. Morrell in behalf of protection of home industry have been felt in their midst. Let no man be bribed to vote against Mr. Morrell. The man who would sacrifice the interests of his neighbors and the peace of his country by accepting a bribe to vote against Morrell might be bribed to take up arms against his government.

☞We all want peace but can we have it under such rebel leaders as Hampton, Preston, Forrest, Buckner and Vallandigham? Think of whom you are voting with, when you are depositing your ballot on the 13th of October. Vote for Hartranft and Campbell and you vote for men who fought gallantly to preserve our Union, but vote for Ent and Boyle and you will encourage the rebels who are looking to Pennsylvania to welcome them in their efforts to get into power.

☞"If any man attempts to pull down the American flag shoot him on the spot." That was the public sentiment of Gen. John A. Dix, the leader of the loyal Democracy of the State of New York, when rebels were in arms trying to destroy our government. Gen. John A. Dix's heart is in the right place still—he says, "I see but one source of safety for the country under existing circumstances, and that is the election of General Grant." Read General Dix's letter in another column.

☞Pennsylvania, it is said by close calculators, will give 10,000 majority for Hartranft and Campbell. We would not be surprised if it would reach 20,000. But it will require continued work to swell the figures to this majority. The only sure way to carry the State by a heavy majority is to have every Union Republican vote polled. A few votes at home in every election district on election day might defeat us in the State. Old Huntingdon must poll her full vote.

☞Remember voters the Democratic platform pledges the Democratic party to TAX EVERY SPECIES OF PROPERTY ACCORDING TO ITS VALUE. Farmers will you vote for a party that will tax your farms; mechanics, will you vote for a party that will tax the tools you work with? laboring man, will vote for a party that will tax every dollar you honestly earn?

☞Friends of the whole ticket, in every election district, see that you are not deceived at the polls. Examine your tickets closely at the time you vote and see that you have the full Republican ticket, clean and pure as nominated by your party in County Convention. Don't allow Democrats, or anybody else to persuade you to cut your ticket—not even a single man.

"Gold for Bondholders."

One of the arguments (?) of Mr. Pendleton and other Democratic politicians is, that the bondholders are paid their interest in gold, while other people are compelled to take their pay in greenbacks for everything that is due to them. To show that this is essentially the trick of a domagogue, the Hon. Edw. McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, publishes the vote of the House in 1862 on concurring with the Senate's amendment to the Legal Tender bill whereby the interest on the Five-Twenty bonds was made payable in coin. On this proposition (which Mr. Stevens vehemently opposed) the Republicans stood Yeas 43; Nays 55—a majority in the negative. All the Democrats but two (Baily of Pa. and Noell of Mo.) voted to pay the interest in gold, and carried it. Forty-five Democrats recorded their votes in favor of paying gold—only two the other way. The Hon. S. S. Blair, then Republican Representative in Congress from this district, was one of the 55 Republicans who voted to pay the interest on the bonds in greenbacks.

The Defeat in Maine.

The La Crosse Democrat, an organ of the Democrats more popular with the party than any other in the United States, is honest enough to admit the serious defeat of its party in Maine. It says:

"The State election in Maine has been held—the smoke has lifted—the Republicans have over twenty thousand majority. We are defeated there, and do not like it. We met the enemy in Maine and are theirs. They whipped us there worse than we supposed they would or could, and it hurts. Duty to our readers—a desire to speak truth makes us admit a defeat there—a stronger Republican vote than we looked for."

☞Union Republicans, we know there are Democrats who count on breaking into your lines and taking some of your votes in several townships to help to elect one or two of their candidates. Be watchful—have your pickets out to give the alarm,—examine your tickets and detect deception if attempted to be practiced. Be sure you are voting right—let no one deceive you with a mixed ticket. Watch the pasters—be sure your ticket is Grant and Colfax from top to bottom. Be sure you are right, then go ahead—and listen for a victorious shout along the whole line, "Grant, Colfax and Victory!"

☞There is not a Democratic candidate for Congress who is not in favor of permitting the rebels to get into our National Halls to rule over loyal men. Linton, the Democratic candidate for Congress, was one of the men who in our State Legislature voted against the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, which says the National debt shall be paid and the rebel debt shall not. Do you want such a man to represent your district in Congress? If you want your taxes increased, vote for Linton; if you want peace, vote for Morrell.

"SOME HIRELINGS."—The Monitor says there were "some hirelings" in the Grant and Colfax Tanner Club procession on the night of the 18th. "Some hirelings!"—does the editor mean the kind of men denounced as "Abe Lincoln's hirelings" during the war?—if so, there were some such in the procession—men who served their country under "Honest Abe," and helped to whip the rebels who have now a front seat in the Democratic party. Bully for the "some hirelings."

☞We have heard from Vermont and Maine but let us keep the light burning, and give a storming majority for Hartranft and Campbell in October next. The eyes of other States are upon the old Keystone, and it is expected of her that she will do her full duty in October, and add to the route of the enemy in November. Let us give them another 1864!

☞Gen. John A. Dix, and James T. Brady, Esq., understand clearly what the main issue is in the contest this fall. It is whether Grant and Colfax shall be elected and the country enjoy peace, or whether Seymour and Blair shall be elected, and the National Government pass into the control of Rebels and men who encouraged them.

☞The Democratic papers in this district have given up the contest for Seymour. Their greatest calumnies are now uttered against Morrell. Don't you see—they want to carry the Congressman. They want Linton in Congress so that if the rebels present themselves they will be admitted without any guarantees.

☞We call attention to the plain and truthful statement of Capt. Neely in another column, under the head of "To the Public." The Monitor editor will not have much trouble counting the votes it will make against the Captain by misrepresenting him.

☞The indications are that the Union Republican mass meeting to be held in this place on the 7th of October will be the greatest crowd of people ever before in the town.

☞The beautiful silk flag to be presented to the largest delegation on the 7th has been received. The township receiving it will have something to be proud of. We wouldn't be surprised if one of the most distant townships would take it.

IMPORTANT LETTER FROM Gen. John A. Dix.

His Opinion of Horatio Seymour.—His Election would be a Calamity.—Only safety for the country the Election of General Grant.

NEW YORK, September 22.

General Dix, American Minister to France, has sent the following letter to that eminent life-long and active Democrat, John J. Cisco, of New York, late Assistant United States Treasurer who is known to be in sympathy with the sentiments expressed in the letter. It was not written for publication, but the gentleman to whom it was addressed has consented to give it to the public:

PARIS, September 4, 1868.

Dear Sir:—It was my hope that my distance from home would have saved me from all participation in political excitement prevailing there; but I notice in one of the newspapers that I am "heart and hand with Mr. Seymour." I am not aware of anything in the present or past which could rightfully subject me to such an imputation.

I have been acquainted with Mr. Seymour more than a quarter of a century. He is an amiable gentleman of unexceptionable private character and respectable talents, but you know as well as I, that he has not a single qualification for the successful execution of the high official trust to which he has been nominated, and he is especially deficient in that firmness of purpose which, in critical emergencies, is the only safeguard against public disorder and calamity. He has been twice at different times Governor of the State of New York, and he has in neither case had the talent or tact to keep the Democratic party of the State together more than two years. I should regard his election at this juncture, when steadiness of purpose, decision, and self control are so much needed, as one of the greatest calamities that could befall the country.

Moreover, he has been put in nomination by a convention which has openly declared the purpose of those it represents to pay the greater part of the public debt contracted to preserve the Union in depreciated paper. Such a measure would, in my judgment, be a palpable violation of public faith, pledged under circumstances which should have been binding on all honorable men. Seymour has made public speeches to show that it is our duty to pay the debt in specie. In accepting his nomination to the Presidency, he adopts the declaration that it ought to be paid in paper. I know nothing so humiliating in the history of American politics as this tergiversation. It was perhaps not unfit that Mr. Seymour, after presiding in 1864 over the Chicago Convention, which declared the war was a failure, should preside over the Convention of 1868, in which a proposition to discredit the debt contracted to carry on the war was received with tremendous cheering, and that he should be the chosen instrument to execute this act of national turpitude. I do not believe that the wishes or opinions of the great body of the Democratic party are fairly expressed in these proceedings.—They have nothing in common with the statesmanlike views of policy and the high sense of national honor which guided the party when Martin Van Buren, Wm. Yancey, Silas Wright, Lewis Cass and Stephen A. Douglas were among its most conspicuous members.

I see but one source of safety for the country under existing circumstances, and that is the election of General Grant.—On his decision of character, good sense, moderation and disinterested patriotism, I believe the South will have a far better hope of regaining the position in the Union to which it is entitled than under a man whose political career has been in nothing more conspicuously marked than in an utter infirmity of purpose. Independently of all these considerations, I should be greatly surprised if the people of the United States were to elect as their Chief Magistrate a man who was making at the Academy of Music, on the 4th of July, 1863, a speech deficient in all the characteristics of an elevated love of country, at the very hour when General Grant was carrying the victorious arms of the Union into Vicksburg, and when thousands of our fallen countrymen were pouring out their blood on the plains of Gettysburg in defense of their homes and the government, which Mr. Seymour was doing all in his power to embarrass and discredit. I am quite willing you should show this letter to any friends who may take an interest in my opinion in regard to the coming election, and I am particularly desirous of removing the impression, if it exists, that I am in favor of Mr. Seymour or the repudiation of any portion of the public debt.

I am, sir, very truly yours,

JNO. A. DIX.

Democratic Greenback Counterfeits.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, under date of September 23d, thus exposes one of the Democratic electioneering dodges:

A few days ago a citizen of Blair county, Pennsylvania, forwarded to General Spinner, United States Treasurer, one of the bogus dollar greenbacks, got up by the Democrats as a burlesque upon the national currency. This specimen is printed on common coarse paper, with green ink front and back, and the engraving is from a wood cut, roughly done, but at a little distance off it might readily be mistaken for a genuine note, and could easily be passed at night, or upon near-sighted persons, as a genuine bill. Instead of Chase's likeness on the left hand corner, which the genuine dollar greenback contains, this imitation bears the likeness of Seymour, and has a facsimile signature of Treasurer Spinner in its usual place at the bottom, right hand side. On the back it contains a promise to pay the bondholders in greenbacks, including 5-20 bonds, which is the Democratic doctrine.

The object in sending this note to General Spinner was to ascertain whether it was not a violation of the law establishing the national currency, and General Spinner referred the matter to Solicitor Jordan, of the Treasury Department, whose opinion is, that all such imitations, for whatever purpose issued, are clearly violations of the law, and all parties concerned in issuing or trafficking in them are liable to fine and imprisonment for so doing.

General Spinner has written a reply to the gentleman in Blair county, in which he sets forth these facts, and eloquently shows that if Seymour and Blair are elected, these unauthorized emissions will unquestionably supersede the genuine national currency, which will become valueless. The Blair county gentleman states that large numbers of these imitations have been circulated in Western Pennsylvania and the adjoining States, and that many simple-minded farmers have been imposed upon, and received them for money, being told by interested parties that they were just as good as "greenbacks."

Mr. Spinner has also received information that this villainous imitation has been largely circulated in the south among the colored people and given away to them in immense quantities, the unsophisticated blacks being told that if they vote for Seymour and Blair these notes will pass as money and be as good as greenbacks to buy corn, potatoes, or any other necessaries of life.

This is one of the most outrageous and disgraceful modes of electioneering ever attempted in this country, and the strong arm of the law will be invoked to crush it out, and punish the originators if they can be reached.

Still they Come.

The "Irish People," one of the most prominent Irish papers in this country, and hitherto strongly Democratic published in New York, has declared for Grant and Colfax. From a brilliant article defending this change of front we extract the following:

"The Democratic party is allied to the Anglo-Confederate party in the South which carried on the war for the destruction of the Union. Had England and the Confederates been successful, this Republic would have been ruined; and with its disintegration the hopes of all succor for the Irish exile and all aid for his cause would have been lost forever. The success of the secession would have been a great calamity for Ireland, and, as such, the Irish citizens of America resisted it. And in resisting it, they resisted the policy and the manifest handiwork of England. Therefore, it is unreasonable for them, now to ally themselves with England and England's devoted friends, for this is what they would do if they connect themselves with the Southern "Democracy."

"The Democratic party are now obstructionists, conservatives, tories, reactionists, while the Republicans are progressive, liberal, and aggressive.—It is with the party which moves forward, and that loves liberty's sake, that the Irish should advance; for it is only from these what we can hope for any help."

August Belmont, the centre head of the New York Democracy and the chief engineer of the Tammany Hall Convention, has been openly charged in the public press with swindling the Fenian Brotherhood and making himself an accomplice of England, in the most treacherous manner, in a purely commercial and confidential transaction. Are Irishmen made of such sorry stuff as to support a party which is guided by their meanest foe?

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

STRAYED AWAY.

Mass Meetings.

Union Republican Mass Meetings for this county will be held as follows:

" Huntingdon, Wednesday Oct. 7.

Speakers will be present and address each of the above meetings.

Chairman County Committee.

Brief Items.

The Monitor advises its political friends to look out for frauds. That's c. ol.

The little Juniata was considerably swollen last week by the rains. No damage.

We had a "plenty sufficiency" of the equinoctial storm last week.

The fashionable folly "Grecian bend" has not been practiced hereaways.

Look out! for the Democratic counterfeit greenbacks. They have fraud upon their face.

A gentleman at our elbow suggests the extension of the bbrough limits to accommodate the Mass Meeting on Wednesday, 7th.

The La Grosse Democrats hereabouts don't like Gen. Dix's letter. It's a heavy broadside into their camp.

The Banner township—the one sending the largest delegation to the mass meeting in proportion to its Republican votes.

Every man in business, no matter what he sells, ought to put as much in advertising as he does into rent, at least.

Every good party man has his "point of honor"—it is, that after his party nominates a ticket, to support it.

Sixty copies of the worse than rebel La Crosse Democrat are circulated by the Democratic club in this place. Shame!

We have received a copy of the Juniata Valley Democrat, published by W. S. Lukenbach, at Perrysville, Juniata county. We wish it success, of course not its politics.

The voters of the East ward in this boro. will vote at the east window of the Court House; the voters of the West ward will vote at the west window.

Many of our citizens intend going to Philadelphia to witness and participate in the Sailors and Soldiers' Mass Convention, that meets there on the 1st and 2d October.

The best way to keep the Sheriff from advertising and selling your goods, is to advertise and sell them for yourself. If you don't believe it, just try it once.

The Democratic speakers "push the debt and taxation" so "effectually" (vide Standard) that their Democratic hearers and readers are transformed into Republicans, by scores. D'ye see it!

A coffee-pot attached to a torch, was one of the features of the procession on Saturday night last. Every one who noticed it thought at once of a man named Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

The Illinois State Geolgist happened to stray into an Indiana city, with his bag of stone-breaking tools, and was promptly lugged off to the station-house by the police as a burglar.

The Y. M. C. A. of Hollidaysburg have commenced giving a course of lectures. Dr. A. A. Willets lectures this Tuesday evening. It is time the Y. M. C. A. of this place were securing lecturers

Mr. Moses H. Gillespie, of Mifflin county, whilst coming out of a restaurant in Lewistown one night lately, was met by four men, who robbed him of a watch and chain, and pocket book, containing six dollars.

A man named J. B. Black, of Mifflin co., whilst working upon a new house in the Narrows, fell from a ladder a distance of 40 feet, upon a ledge of rocks below. No limbs were broken.

The Monitor refused to publish the statement sworn to by two Democrats and one Republican, as published in the Globe last week, in the case of Captain Neely and the "crazy boy." The editor is not helping his candidate by denying Capt. Neely justice.

Mrs. Isabella Ramer, of Mifflin county, a soldier's widow, had $67 pension and bounty money stolen from her by a thief who entered her house when she was absent and stole the money out of her dress pocket. The thief ought to be caught and tarred and feathered.

Carbolic acid is beginning to play an important part in more ways than one. A physician of good repute and practice says that it will cure consumption, if the patient will habitually breathe an atmosphere impregnated with it.

Look out for the Democratic carpet-baggers that are being sent into this State from Maryland. Remember, one year's residence in the State, and ten days in the election district, with taxes paid within two years, are the legal requisites to an honest ballot.

The Monitor says our procession and meeting at the Court House on the evening of the 18th was "a grand fizzle." That's a bold assertion in the face of a thousand people who could see and hear with less prejudice than the editor of that paper.

Farmers of Huntingdon county: a vote for the Democratic ticket in October is a vote to tax your own farms, and every bushel of grain that you raise. Read the fourth resolution of the Democratic platform about "equal taxation of every species of property."

Important to bachelors.—It has been demonstrated that married women on an average live until forty-five, while unmarried women do not live to be more than forty-three years, of age. Wouldn't the same reasoning apply to those creatures called men?

We hope no week will go by without one or more public meetings and processions. If we can't get speakers from abroad, let us have our own to talk for us. Let townships do likewise. We must keep the ball in motion until the ides of November, when success will crown our efforts.

Small boys will bear watching. Just see how one of them 'lets the cat out of the bag:' "Does the dentist kiss you when he pulls your teeth, pa?" "No, my son, why?" "O, nothing; only he kissed ma, and she said it took the ache all away; and I guess it did, for she laughed all the way home!"

They have Ladies' Tanner Clubs out west. At Pekin, Ill., they turned out in the Grant and Colfax procession, all dressed in appropriate and beautiful uniforms and each bearing a lighted Chinese lantern. They were regularly officered by their own sex and led by their own drum corps, composed of misses in their teens, who handled the sticks like veteran drummers. Who says the West is not all right for the "Tanner boy."

Want of Energy

Is one great cause of misfortune in business, as well as a neglect of household duties. The use of Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" will effectually give tone and energy to the physical powers of the system, and remove lassitude. The Peruvian Bark, contained in them, will also cure Ague.

For sale by Johnston, Holloway & Co., & Fred Brown, corner of 5th and Chestnut sts., and by other Druggists.

A Sociable Little Gathering.

It was made public on Friday last by bills posted through town that a Seymour and Blair meeting would be held in the Court House in the evening. Evening came—the Band marched, with music, to the Court House. We arrived there about 8 o'clock and found a respectable number of voters waiting for a speaker. Full one-third the number present were Republicans, and still there was room for many more without being crowded. Richard Vaux, Esq, of Philadelphia arrived, was introduced, and commenced to make a speech. He started out by saying that old Solomon had said there was a time for all things—a time to be merry—a time to be sad, etc. The speaker appeared to be sad—perhaps he was thinking of the effect the letter of Gen. John A. Dix would have upon the voters all over the country. He proposed to convince Republicans before the close of his speech that they would either vote with his party or not vote at all. He proceeded at considerable length to review the history of parties and the Government up to the close of the war, and it was the general opinion of all Republicans present that his review was a good Republican speech. He then contended that the rebels and their States lost none of their rights in the attempt to destroy our Constitution and our Government. He contended that as soon as the Rebels had fired their last gun they had the right to enjoy all the rights they enjoyed before they took up arms against the Government. He closed his speech by saying that Republicans must either agree to subscribe to negro equality and negro rule or vote the "Democratic ticket." The Republicans present "couldn't see it" and when the meeting adjourned they were of the "same opinion still," that they would vote for Grant and Colfax and the whole Republican State, District and County ticket. The speaker forgot to tell the meeting that the "Democratic" organization was not opposed to secession during the war. Our old friend Charles Shriner was not on hand, and many Democrats were disappointed; they expected to hear that somebody had 'fallen from grace.' Well, they didn't.

Burglary.

On Sunday night, the 20th inst., one or more thieves entered the residence of Mr. James A. Brown on Hill Street and stole some umbrellas, and some articles of wearing apparel. They effected an entrance through the front door, using nippers, and other burglar's contrivances to open it, and going up stairs they tried to open the door of the bed room, but it is supposed they were frightened before they succeeded. The articles stolen were taken from the rack in the hall. Nothing has been seen or heard of burglars since. The operations of these miscreants can only be stopped by our citizens giving them a load of shot whenever they are found inside the house.

A Bashful Young Man.

We never heard of a case of bashfulness to equal the following, which is the more surprising because it is a fact: A lady resident of this place got in one of the cars to travel a short distance, but seeing no seat that was unoccupied she stepped up to a gentleman in one of the seats and asked him if he had any objections to her sitting beside him. He said no, whereupon she sat down, but before anything was said by either the young man's bashfulness overcame him and he arose and said in an audible tone, "Here, madam, you can have the whole of this seat; I can't sit beside the ladies, for my mother told me never to marry!" Saying which he retired to another seat, amidst the merriment of the hearers, his face suffused with blushes.

☞We invite attention to the advertisement of Dr. Taylor's Olive Branch Bitters. The great demand for these Bitters has induced the proprietor to bring them more extensively before the people. As a remedy for impaired digestion, debility, &c. they are unequalled by anything offered to the public. A trial will convince all of their excellence and superiority.

Another Splendid Turnout.

The Grant and Colfax Tanner Club had another procession and meeting on Saturday night last. Col. Wm. Dorris made the speech of the evening, and it was strong and to the point in every particular. Mr. Scott made a few remarks, strong as usual. The Court Room was full.

The Mass Meeting at the Green Tree.

Every voter in the surrounding townships should try to attend the mass meeting at the Green Tree on Friday the 2d of October. Let it be a gathering such as we have seen there when the rebels were in arms against our Government.

☞D. F. Tussey, Co. Supt., will hold special examinations as follows: McAlavys Fort, Saturday Oct. 3d, commencing at 8 o'clock, a. m.; at Coffee Run, on Saturday 10th Oct. at 10 o'clock, a. m.; and at Mt. Union on Saturday 17th Oct. at 12½ o'clock p. m.

Are you assessed?

To the Public.

Having been grossly misrepresented in the matter of the "crazy boy," as published by the Monitor, I feel it my duty to make a truthful statement of the whole transaction. On Tuesday, August 25th, I had been from home all day, returning about 8 o'clock in the evening; while at supper about nine o'clock, Robert Wilson, who has been a voter for several years, came to the front door of my dwelling with two large stones in his hands and demanded the nomination for Frank Laird, a Democrat living in Shade Gap. I invited Wilson, as did also my father-in-law, Mr. John Minich, to come in. He did not come in but stepped back from the door with a stone drawn to throw, when Mr. Minich who had his hand on the door closed it, when said Wilson immediately commenced to stone the door, striking it with several large stones and damaged the door considerably. He then ran into the street and threw several large stones through the window, scattering the sash and glass in every part of the room. One of the stones weighing five or six lbs. came very near striking my wife's head while she was in the act of escaping from the room with our young child. At this time I got out of the back door and ran to the side of the house and threw two stones at Wilson to drive him away. The first stone missed him; the second—about the size of a hen's egg—struck him on the hip, when Wilson immediately ran down the street followed by myself, Mr. McGowan, Mr. Appelby, Mr. Tippery, Mr. Kelly, and others, who assisted in arresting said Wilson. He was then taken to Shearer & Gray's store where he was tied and then taken to his mother's house in the place, where with Appelby, Tippery and Kelly, I remained all night watching him. Next morning he was sent to the poor house at Shirleysburg by W. A. Hudson, Esq, Justice of the Peace in the place, who also witnessed the stoning of the house. I had no words with Wilson that day—did not see him that day. Never had much communication with Wilson. Wilson is not considered perfectly sane at any time; occasionally he becomes dangerous.—What I did at the time I would feel it my duty to do at any other time to protect myself and family.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PREDISPOSING CAUSES OF DISEASE.—The causes of disease are general and particular, affecting one or many persons. Now, as the condition of the body is easily disposed under a variety of circumstances to the action of disease, the importance of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS as a means of combatting and overthrowing the predisposing cause is apparent. It is an invaluable antidote for the human system that is unfortunately affected with any epidemic virus; and such is its wonderful resistent power, that it effectually protects the physique against the evil tendency of an impoisoned atmosphere, or any morbid influence which predisposes the body to the reception of disease. It is, therefore, the true remedy for everyone, whose situation or surroundings are not favorable to the preservation of the health. Sold everywhere.

DIED,

In this place on the 26th inst., of inflammation of the bowels, W. SCOTT MCCABE, in the 22d year of his age.

The deceased was a young man of fine promise, whose modest, unassuming manners and exemplary conduct won for him many friends, and foreshadowed a useful if not a brilliant future. But alas, the fond hopes and desires of his friends were not to be realized. Poor Scott! we cannot but feel sad for thee; thou wast stricken down in the midst of life, and we shall hear no more the tones of thy familiar voice. Scarcely hadst thou attained the summer of thy days ere the dark clouds of a wintry sky overtook and hid thee forever from the view of those who fondly loved thee here. Forever did I say? Ah, no! The grave is but a lodge of peaceful rest on our journey to a better and a purer land.

"Heaven's immortal Spring shall yet arrive;
And man's neglected beauty bloom again,
Bright thro' the eternal year of love's triumphant reign."

W.

In Scottsville, September 16th, 1868, WILSON JAMES HEETER, youngest son of Adam Heeter, Esq, aged 20 years, 7 months and 8 days.

Naturally amiable, our young friend was much beloved. Converted two years ago, he united with the M. E. Church and became at once an earnest working Christian, exemplifying to his many friends by his daily life the power of Divine grace. As a naturnl consequence his death was triumphant. Suddenly stricken, an illness of five days found him all the time with his lamp brightly burning.—His dying chamber was truly "quite on the verge of Heaven." During the last twenty-four hours of his life he exultingly awaited the summons, holding up Jesus as a full Saviour, urging the many who visited him to meet him in glory; giving praise and adoration to Him who bought the victory over death and the grave for him. ***

On the 23d inst., at Warrior Ridge, GEORGE W. LAMP, aged 62 years, 3 months and 11 days.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR,

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headache.

—o—

McGUIRE'S

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. • All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.

Warranted satisfactory or money refunded. Dealers will bear this in mind. Sold by all respectable Druggists in the United States and Canadas. Address orders to
